

CPR training saves lives

WEST CHESTER, OH -- On Monday, October 27, 2014, the Greater Cincinnati Automobile Dealers Association, in conjunction with the National Automobile Dealers Charitable Foundation (NADCF) donated a Little Anne Four Pack Cardiopulmonary training manikin bag to KMR Training Center.

This donation will assist the center's efforts in training individuals on this important life-saving skill set. On behalf of Jake Sweeney Automotive, Jake Sweeney Mazda, the sponsoring organization, presented the manikins at their dealership to President/CEO of KMR Kalena M. Robinson, and staff members Shauntaze L. Reid and Rodney Lawson.

The NADCF has been donating manikins to organizations for nearly 40 years. Since they began in 1975, they've donated over 4,600 manikins to organizations in all 50 states and Washington D.C. These manikins have trained over 2 million people, saving thousands of lives.
